5. City Manager's Report

- City Manager JD Hock- Happy New Year everybody. We are closed for Martin Luther King Day so that will move the Council meeting to that Tuesday. Trash will be moved one day for everyone for that week. Congratulations to Joseph Carroll for accepting the full time City Clerk position and is no longer Interim. It's much deserved. Some new things are coming for the new year. Rose Lane and the CERI project are moving along as required by the ACOG grant. At the end of the meeting there will be the latest update on the budget and those will be provided quarterly.

Departmental Reports:

- City Clerk Joseph Carroll has been in touch with Crawford and Associates who put together our financial statements and they are working on the capital assets part of it and are within a few weeks of sending those over to the auditors.
- Interim Public Works Director Brittany Parrott wants to commend Micah and the streets department with a new plan. They will be going out in the City finding any issues that they can to be proactive in taking care of things.
- Micah Unruh the North Vickie Bridge had a new sink hole discovered. ODOT repaired it by Christmas Day. Repoured the approach today and will hopefully be open soon.
- City Manager Hock this Thursday is an ACOG 911 grant Q and A grant that will be attending to try and find some additional funding.
